NEW ENGLAND LEGENDS TEE OFF AT THE PEPSI CELEBRITY PRO-AM

Morning & Afternoon Shotgun Winners Announced

BARRINGTON, R.I. (June 24, 2018) – Some of the world’s greatest golfers and New England legends teed off at Rhode Island Country Club on Sunday, June 24 at the 20th anniversary of the CVS Health Charity Classic.

The Pepsi Celebrity Pro-Am brought out some of the biggest name in New England sports to Rhode Island Country Club. The morning shotgun field consisted of former New England Patriots linebacker Willie McGinest, PGA TOUR Champion Dana Quigley and former New England Patriots cornerback Ty Law.

Additional celebrities that teed up for the afternoon round included former New England Patriots placekicker Jay Feely, Boston Bruins head coach Bruce Cassidy and LPGA Tour star and defending CVS Health Charity Classic Champion Brooke Henderson.

Pro-Am results are as follows:

Morning Shotgun Champions

Bob Izzo, Tony Vertuca, Dave Breitmayer, Arden Costen and Lou Merloni

Afternoon Shotgun Champions

Christian Felli, Steve Rowles, Gerry Brito, Tobey Lombardi and Jay Feely
